ΘΕΣΣΑΛΟΝ – ΗΧΟΙ

A documentary about music and Thessaloniki city

Screening schedule:

TONIA MARKETAKI Saturday 12/3: 20:00

FRIDA LIAPPA Sunday: 13/3 23:00

This documentary is an effort to record the diversity of the music streams, the new tendencies that are imprinted at the music scene of Thessaloniki. A city which has always been the leader of music (events) in our country, a city at the crossroads of East and West. A network of groups and of artistic creativity seems to operate into this urban area.

Representatives of the bands, who produce music and circulate it having Thessaloniki as their base, talk about their relationships with this city and the their contemporaneity

At the time that a digital reality has started to prevail (Internet), all kind of artists try to draw our attention and get known in a wider audience for free, changing in that way the rules of the game. Music producers, as well as representatives of the radio and the municipal authorities also express their opinions.

The documentary is a creation of a cinematic group called Ciners8 that was formed at Digital Video School and operates at the Peirama stage in Thessaloniki, with John Koufonikos in charge.

Eight persons with completely different courses, aspects, ideas, aesthetics, age and occupation yet with a common interest for the moving picture, achieved the production of the documentary Thessalonixi through out a cooperative procedure of learning and creating.
